Limited and others before Bombay High Court	The Appeal is filed against the dismissal of the Suit filed by the Society against MLDL.	Y	We have not been provided with documents to ascertain the impact of the aforesaid appeal and the below mentioned order which we were able to trace online is not conclusive in nature. The aforesaid appeal has been filed by a society against Mahindra and the nature of the dispute has not been disclosed; the Society should take note and seek further clarification. Basis response received to our requisition we note that the appeal is pending for final hearing and, as per Mahindra, there is no financial implication against MLDL as the impugned order passed by the City Civil Court is in favour of MLDL.
Order dated 28 March 2006		The appeal was admitted and printing was dispensed with. The Appellants were directed to file a private paper-book within one year, failing which the appeal would stand dismissed for want of prosecution. The Advocates for Respondent Nos. 1 and 2 waived service.
2.	Company Petition (IB) 520 of 2026 filed by HCEC Construction Private Limited against MLDL under Section 9 of the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016 before National Company Law Tribunal, Mumbai Bench	HCEC Construction has filed an Insolvency Petition against MLDL for recovery of monetary claims. The dispute is being resolved.	Y	Basis the orders traced online, the petition has been dismissed as withdrawn following an out-of-court settlement. Mahindra has incurred a financial liability of INR 72,00,000 (Indian Rupees Seventy Two Lakh) towards the settlement, which has been confirmed as fully paid. The outstanding amount claimed is recorded in the order as "Rs. 2.46" and the unit is not legible in the copy traced online. Basis response received to our requisition we note that the Company Petition has been disposed of as withdrawn as the parties have settled out of court, and Mahindra has stated that there is no financial implication in the matter.
Order dated 9 October 2026		IA (IBC)/4315(MB)2026 was allowed. The Applicant's counsel stated that the outstanding claimed amount of Rs. 2.46 had been settled for Rs. 72 lakh and fully received, which the Basis response received to our requisition, Mahindra has stated that the tax demands under appeal are disclosed as contingent liabilities in note 36 of its standalone financial statements for March 2026, being INR 906.57 lakhs relating to income tax matters and INR 3,919.31 lakhs relating to indirect tax matters (VAT, service tax, entry tax and goods and services tax), and that the two tax litigations disclosed in the tender submission relate to a writ petition before the Madras High Court against a show cause notice issued by the service tax department (INR 67.7 lakhs) and an order of the Director General of Anti-Profiteering (INR 2.78 crore). Mahindra has not confirmed in its response that the litigations declared in the tender submission are the only litigations filed by or against it. Matters filed by Mahindra (other than appeals against orders passed in complaints filed against Mahindra) have not been included in this tracker.

4. Qualifications:

This tracker is based solely on the tender submission of Mahindra, the orders and case status records traced online and the responses received to our requisition. We have not been provided with the pleadings or other documents in any of the matters. Orders are summarised as they appear in the copies traced online, which may not be official copies.

Recommendation: Mahindra should be required to provide the pleadings, the latest orders and the current status of each matter listed above.
